RainbowVision

Santa Fe, N.M.

As openly gay seniors start to retire, they don't want to have to go back to being secret about who they are. So, a string of gay retirement communities are opening up to serve their needs. RainbowVision plans more sites in Palm Springs, the Bay Area and in British Columbia. For now the Santa Fe location offers apartments and assisted living rooms, a Billie Jean King fitness center and plenty of entertainment and comfort.
